

OVERTURNABLE

Meaning: Overturnable: capable of being reversed or annulled, especially in a legal context.

1. The judge ruled that the previous decision was overturnable based on new evidence presented.
2. In legal terms, an overturnable verdict can lead to a retrial if sufficient grounds are established.
3. The committee found that the policy changes were not overturnable under the current regulations.
4. Her argument was compelling enough to suggest that the ruling was indeed overturnable.
5. Despite the initial agreement, many believed the decision was overturnable with the right justification.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overturnable>