

OXYGEN

Meaning: Oxygen is a colorless, odorless gas that is essential for the survival of most living organisms, playing a vital role in processes such as cellular respiration.

1. Oxygen is essential for the survival of most living organisms on Earth.
2. The scientist explained how oxygen plays a crucial role in cellular respiration.
3. During the experiment, we measured the levels of oxygen in the water.
4. Deep-sea divers need to monitor their oxygen supply closely to ensure safety.
5. Plants produce oxygen as a byproduct of photosynthesis, benefiting the entire ecosystem.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oxygen>