

OZONIZATION

Meaning: Ozonization is the process of treating a substance, such as water or air, with ozone to remove contaminants and improve quality.

1. Ozonization is often used in water treatment processes to eliminate contaminants.
2. The ozonization of air can significantly improve indoor air quality by removing odors.
3. Researchers are studying the effects of ozonization on various organic compounds in the environment.
4. During ozonization, ozone molecules react with pollutants to transform them into less harmful substances.
5. Ozonization technology has become a popular choice for disinfection in food processing industries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ozonization>