

PACIFICATION

Meaning: Pacification is the process of bringing peace and stability to a region or situation, often through diplomatic means or negotiations.

1. The pacification of the region took years of diplomatic efforts and negotiations.
2. His speech focused on the importance of pacification as a means of resolving conflict peacefully.
3. The government prioritized the pacification of rebellious areas to restore order and stability.
4. After the protests, local leaders called for pacification to heal divisions within the community.
5. Pacification strategies often involve a combination of military and humanitarian initiatives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pacification>