

PACT

Meaning: A pact is a formal agreement or treaty between two or more parties, often to achieve specific goals or mutual benefits.

1. The two countries entered into a historic pact to promote peace and economic cooperation.
2. After hours of negotiation, they finally reached a pact that satisfied both parties.
3. The environmental group signed a pact with local businesses to reduce waste and promote sustainability.
4. Their pact was sealed with a handshake, symbolizing a mutual commitment to the cause.
5. In times of crisis, the leaders emphasized the importance of honoring the pact they had made.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pact>