

PACTITIOUS

Meaning: Pactitious refers to being characterized by or resulting from a formal agreement or contract, often emphasizing self-interest over lasting commitments.

1. The research paper highlighted the pactitious nature of the alliances formed during the negotiations.
2. In a pactitious agreement, the parties involved often prioritize their own interests over long-term commitments.
3. Her pactitious behavior in the partnership raised concerns about the sustainability of their business model.
4. The historian argued that the pactitious relationships among the leaders led to a fragile peace in the region.
5. They entered into a pactitious arrangement that ultimately proved to be detrimental to both sides.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pactitious>