

PADLOCK

Meaning: A padlock is a portable locking device that can be secured to a hasp or chain to prevent unauthorized access.

1. The padlock secured the gate, ensuring that no one could enter the garden uninvited.
2. She fumbled with the combination on the padlock, her heart racing as she tried to remember the code.
3. After searching for hours, he finally found the key to the rusty padlock that had kept the old shed closed for years.
4. The children giggled as they tried to guess the number that would unlock the sturdy padlock on their treasure chest.
5. With a satisfying click, the padlock opened, revealing the forgotten memories inside the dusty box.
6. She secured the gate with a sturdy padlock to keep intruders out.
7. After searching through the toolbox, he finally found the key to the old padlock.
8. The padlock glinted in the sunlight, a reliable safeguard for her bicycle.
9. He felt a sense of relief when he clicked the padlock shut, knowing his belongings were safe.
10. In the mystery novel, the detective discovered a hidden compartment sealed with a rusty padlock.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/padlock>