

PAGING

Meaning: Paging refers to the act of quickly scanning or flipping through a collection of items, such as photographs or documents, often to find specific information or to communicate efficiently.

1. Paging through the old photo album brought back a flood of memories from my childhood.
2. The hospital staff relied on a reliable paging system to communicate quickly during emergencies.
3. She spent the afternoon paging through various books to find the perfect recipe for dinner.
4. After several minutes of paging through the channels, he finally found a show worth watching.
5. The teacher announced that she would be paging through the assignments to provide feedback tomorrow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paging>