

PAINT

Meaning: PAINT (verb): To apply a colored substance to a surface using a brush, roller, or other tool.

1. She decided to paint the living room a vibrant shade of blue.
2. The artist carefully mixed the colors on his palette before applying the paint to the canvas.
3. After a long day of work, he found joy in painting landscapes at sunset.
4. The children giggled as they splattered paint on the large sheet of paper.
5. To protect the artwork, she sealed it with a layer of clear varnish over the paint.
6. She decided to paint her bedroom a calming shade of blue.
7. The artist used vivid colors to paint a stunning landscape on the canvas.
8. After hours of work, he finally finished painting the intricate mural on the wall.
9. They gathered in the park to paint with watercolors, enjoying the sunny afternoon.
10. The paint on the old fence was peeling, revealing the weathered wood underneath.
11. She decided to paint the living room a bright shade of yellow to bring in more light.
12. The artist spent hours mixing colors to get the perfect shade for his latest canvas.
13. After the storm, the old barn looked even more charming with its peeling, weathered paint.
14. He used a fine brush to paint intricate details on the model, showcasing his meticulous skills.
15. The children giggled as they splashed paint across the large sheet of paper, creating a masterpiece together.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paint>