

PALAVER

Meaning: Palaver refers to prolonged and idle discussion or chatter that often distracts from more important matters.

1. The meeting turned into a lengthy palaver, distracting everyone from the real issues at hand.
2. After hours of palaver, they finally reached a consensus on the project's direction.
3. His love for palaver often made him the life of the party, but it sometimes wore others out.
4. Instead of making a decision, they engaged in a palaver that seemed to go in circles.
5. The politician's palaver was filled with grand promises but lacked any solid plans for implementation.
6. The meeting turned into a lengthy palaver that accomplished little.
7. After hours of palaver, they finally reached a consensus on the project.
8. She was tired of the endless palaver and just wanted to get to the point.
9. His palaver about the benefits of the new policy left everyone confused.
10. They engaged in a lively palaver about politics and current events at the café.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palaver>