

PALLIDNESS

Meaning: Pallidness refers to a state of being pale or lacking in color, often indicating poor health or a subdued atmosphere.

1. Her pallidness suggested that she had been unwell for quite some time.
2. The artist captured the pallidness of the winter landscape with striking clarity.
3. Despite his pallidness, he managed to maintain a sense of humor that brightened the room.
4. The doctor noted the pallidness of the patient's skin as a sign of potential anemia.
5. In the dim light, her pallidness made her look almost ethereal, as if she were part of a dream.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pallidness>