

PALMATIFID

Meaning: Palmatifid refers to a type of leaf that is divided into lobes or segments that radiate from a central point, resembling a hand with outstretched fingers.

1. The botanist noted the palmatifid leaves of the rare plant during her field study.
2. In the garden, the palmatifid foliage added a unique texture to the landscape design.
3. The identification of the palmatifid characteristics helped in classifying the new species.
4. Artists often seek inspiration from the intricate patterns of palmatifid plant forms.
5. During the lecture, the professor explained the significance of palmatifid shapes in plant evolution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palmatifid>