

PALMIPED

Meaning: Palmiped: a type of aquatic bird, such as a duck or swan, that has webbed feet adapted for swimming.

1. The palmiped species are well adapted to both aquatic and terrestrial environments.
2. In the wetlands, you can often spot a variety of palmipeds gracefully gliding through the water.
3. The biologist focused her research on the feeding habits of palmipeds in the coastal region.
4. Palmipeds possess unique webbed feet that make them exceptional swimmers.
5. During migration, many palmipeds travel long distances to find suitable breeding grounds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palmiped>