

PALPATION

Meaning: Palpation is the examination of the body by touch, especially to assess the condition of internal organs or detect abnormalities.

1. The doctor conducted a thorough palpation of the patient's abdomen to check for any abnormalities.
2. Palpation is a crucial technique used by healthcare professionals to assess the condition of internal organs.
3. During the physical examination, the physician used palpation to evaluate the swelling in the patient's joints.
4. The nurse explained that palpation helps in identifying tenderness and other signs of underlying health issues.
5. After palpation, the specialist noted that the lymph nodes were enlarged, indicating a possible infection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palpation>