

PALPATOR

Meaning: Palpator: a person who examines the body by touch, especially to detect abnormalities or assess health conditions.

1. The skilled palpator carefully examined the patient's abdomen for any abnormalities.
2. During the training session, the medical students practiced their techniques as palpators on each other.
3. She was known as a talented palpator, able to detect even the slightest changes in tissue consistency.
4. The role of a palpator is crucial in many diagnostic procedures to assess underlying health issues.
5. His experience as a palpator allowed him to make a swift diagnosis that others might have missed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palpator>