

PALSTER

Meaning: Palster (verb): To cover or adorn a surface, such as a wall or furniture, with a decorative layer or material.

1. The artist decided to palster the wall with a vibrant mural that captured the spirit of the community.
2. To palster the broken furniture, she used a mix of glue and decorative fabric to give it a new life.
3. He watched as the craft fair attendees competed to palster their booths with the most eye-catching designs.
4. The children were excited to palster their art projects with glitter and bright stickers.
5. In an effort to palster the old bookcases, she carefully sanded and painted them to match her new decor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palster>