

PALTER

Meaning: To palter means to act insincerely or to be deliberately ambiguous, especially regarding the truth or facts.

1. She decided not to palter with the truth, knowing it would only complicate matters further.
2. In his quest for success, he learned that to palter with the facts would ultimately damage his reputation.
3. Rather than palter over the details, she chose to address the issue directly and openly.
4. The politician's tendency to palter during debates left many voters feeling uncertain about his integrity.
5. To palter in negotiations often leads to misunderstandings and a breakdown in trust between parties.
6. He tried to palter with the truth, hoping no one would notice his deception.
7. During the negotiations, she refused to palter and insisted on complete transparency.
8. It's frustrating when people palter instead of addressing the issue directly.
9. The politician's tendency to palter left many voters questioning his integrity.
10. Rather than palter about his intentions, he decided to be completely honest.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/palter>