PALUDICOL

Meaning: Paludicol refers to an environment or habitat characterized by wetlands or marshy areas that support aquatic species and biodiversity.

1. The paludicol habitat is crucial for the survival of various aquatic species.
2. Researchers are studying the paludicol ecosystem to understand its unique biodiversity.
3. Many birds, such as herons and kingfishers, are classified as paludicol due to their wetland habitats.
4. The paludicol regions are often threatened by urban development and climate change.
5. Conservation efforts are underway to protect the paludicol areas from pollution and degradation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paludicol