

PAMPERO

Meaning: Pampero: a strong, cold wind that blows from the southwest across the Pampas region of South America, often bringing sudden changes in weather.

1. The pampero winds swept across the plains, bringing a sudden chill to the air.
2. After days of calm weather, the arrival of a pampero caught the attention of local farmers.
3. Surfing the waves whipped up by the pampero was an exhilarating experience for the adventurers.
4. The stormy skies signaled the onset of the pampero, a phenomenon known for its fierce gusts.
5. He enjoyed the dramatic shift in temperature that the pampero brought, marking the change of seasons.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pampero>