

PAMPHLETEER

Meaning: Pamphleteer (verb): To distribute pamphlets or leaflets, typically to promote a cause or raise awareness about an issue.

1. The activist decided to pamphleteer during the festival to raise awareness about climate change.
2. As a passionate advocate for free speech, he spent his weekends pamphleteering in the local parks.
3. The group of students organized a pamphleteering campaign to promote their upcoming charity event.
4. She learned how to effectively pamphleteer from her mentor, who had years of experience in grassroots movements.
5. While pamphleteering in the neighborhood, they encountered both support and opposition from the residents.
6. The activist decided to pamphleteer in the busy downtown area to raise awareness about climate change.
7. As a dedicated pamphleteer, she spent hours every weekend distributing literature about local elections.
8. The students organized a group to pamphleteer for their cause, hoping to engage more people in the discussion.
9. He took to the streets to pamphleteer, believing that spreading information could empower the community.
10. During the campaign, volunteers were encouraged to pamphleteer in neighborhoods to ensure everyone knew their voting rights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pamphleteer>