

PANDAR

Meaning: To pandar means to indulge or cater to the desires or preferences of others, often to gain approval or favor.

1. The artist decided to pandar to the critics by adding more vibrant colors to her latest painting.
2. In his attempt to pandar to the audience, the comedian made several jokes about popular culture.
3. The politician was accused of pandaring to special interest groups instead of addressing the needs of his constituents.
4. During the meeting, she chose to pandar to her boss's preferences rather than express her own ideas.
5. To gain popularity, the brand began to pandar to younger consumers with trendy marketing strategies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pandar>