

PANEGYRIC

Meaning: A panegyric is a formal expression of praise or tribute, often delivered in speech or writing.

1. The author's panegyric to the late scientist highlighted her groundbreaking contributions to climate research.
2. During the ceremony, the mayor delivered a heartfelt panegyric in honor of the retiring teacher's decades of service.
3. In his speech, he offered a panegyric that celebrated the company's achievements and vision for the future.
4. The book is a beautiful panegyric to friendship, filled with anecdotes and reflections on loyalty and love.
5. Her panegyric at the memorial service moved many to tears, capturing the essence of the individual's life and spirit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/panegyric>