

PANG

Meaning: PANG (noun): a sharp, sudden feeling of emotional distress or discomfort.

1. The pang of regret hit her as she read the letter.
2. He felt a sudden pang of jealousy when he saw them together.
3. A pang of hunger reminded him that he had forgotten to eat all day.
4. The news delivered a sharp pang of sadness that lingered in the air.
5. She experienced a pang of nostalgia while flipping through the old photo album.
6. The sudden pang of guilt hit her as she remembered the harsh words she had spoken.
7. He felt a pang of nostalgia as he flipped through old family photo albums.
8. A sharp pang in his chest reminded him of the loss he had endured.
9. She experienced a pang of hunger that made her stomach grumble loudly.
10. With a pang of regret, he realized he had missed his chance to say goodbye.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pang>