

PANICLED

Meaning: Panicked (adjective): experiencing sudden, overwhelming fear or anxiety.

1. She was panicked by the sudden change in plans, unsure of what to do next.
2. The dog became panicked at the sound of thunder, hiding under the bed for safety.
3. As the fire alarm rang, the crowd panicked, rushing towards the nearest exit in chaos.
4. His face turned pale as he realized he had panicked during the important presentation.
5. The unexpected news left her feeling panicked, her thoughts racing in every direction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/panicked>