

PANIM

Meaning: 'Panim' refers to the face or presence of God, symbolizing divine manifestation, as well as the inner aspect of a person that reflects their true character in Jewish tradition.

1. The ancient text described the concept of 'panim' as the face of God, revealing divine presence.
2. In Jewish tradition, 'panim' often refers to the inner aspect of a person, reflecting their true character.
3. During the ceremony, the rabbi spoke about how 'panim' signifies both the physical and spiritual face of humanity.
4. She felt a deep connection with her heritage when she learned about the significance of 'panim' in her culture.
5. The artist captured the essence of 'panim' in her painting, illustrating the interplay between light and shadow on a person's face.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/panim>