

PANNIERED

Meaning: PANNIERED (adjective): equipped with panniers, which are bags or containers attached to a bicycle or animal for carrying supplies.

1. The cyclist pedaled down the trail with her panniered bike, fully loaded for a weekend adventure.
2. He admired the panniered horse as it trotted gracefully, carrying supplies for the journey ahead.
3. After packing the panniered bags, they set off early in the morning to catch the sunrise at the summit.
4. The panniered cargo shifted slightly with each bump in the road, but the straps held it securely in place.
5. She felt a sense of freedom riding her panniered bicycle through the countryside, the wind in her hair and the world at her feet.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/panniered>