

PANT

Meaning: To pant means to breathe quickly and heavily, typically due to exertion or heat.

1. The dog began to pant after running around the park.
2. She tried to catch her breath and stop herself from panting during the intense workout.
3. As the sun beat down, he felt himself start to pant from the heat.
4. The hiker had to pause to pant and regain her energy before continuing up the mountain.
5. Panting softly, the cat settled on the windowsill to watch the world go by.
6. He felt a wave of exhaustion wash over him as he began to pant after the long run.
7. The dog began to pant heavily after chasing the ball for what seemed like forever.
8. She had to pant for breath after climbing the steep hill so quickly.
9. In the heat of the moment, he could only pant as he tried to catch his breath.
10. The sound of her panting echoed in the quiet room as she struggled to regain her composure.
11. After a long run, I could only pant heavily as I tried to catch my breath.
12. The dog began to pant excitedly when it saw its owner approaching.
13. She had to pant for a moment before she could speak after sprinting up the stairs.
14. The athlete's chest heaved as he continued to pant, struggling to recover from the intense workout.
15. In the heat of the summer, it's common for pets to pant as they cool themselves down.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pant>