

PAPIZED

Meaning: PAPIZED (verb): to be transformed or exaggerated in style or appearance, often in a whimsical or artistic manner.

1. The artist's work was often papized, transforming ordinary subjects into extraordinary pieces.
2. In the whimsical story, the characters were papized, taking on exaggerated features that brought them to life.
3. The documentary showcased how the city's landscape was papized over the years, turning mundane buildings into vibrant attractions.
4. Critics noted that the film's dialogue felt papized, emphasizing emotional moments with a touch of humor.
5. As the project progressed, the team decided to papize the initial concept, adding layers of creativity and imagination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/papized>