

PAPULE

Meaning: A papule is a small, raised, solid bump on the skin that is often a sign of an inflammatory or allergic condition.

1. The dermatologist examined the patient's skin for any signs of papules that could indicate an underlying condition.
2. After the allergic reaction, small red papules began to appear on her arms and legs.
3. The doctor explained that a papule is typically a small, raised bump on the skin that may or may not be itchy.
4. She was relieved to find out that the papules on her face were benign and would clear up with treatment.
5. In some cases, papules can develop into larger lesions if not properly managed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/papule>