

PARALLELOPIPED

Meaning: A parallelepiped is a three-dimensional geometric figure with six faces, each of which is a parallelogram.

1. The artist sculpted a beautifully intricate parallelepiped from a single block of marble.
2. In geometry class, we learned that a parallelepiped is a three-dimensional figure with six faces that are parallelograms.
3. The engineer designed a parallelepiped structure to maximize space while maintaining structural integrity.
4. When arranging the books, she noticed that the shelf could hold a perfect parallelepiped of novels.
5. The crystal was cut into a gleaming parallelepiped, reflecting light from every angle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/parallelepiped>