

PARALYTICAL

Meaning: Paralytical refers to a condition characterized by paralysis or the inability to move, often used to describe both physical incapacity and illustrative examples that demonstrate immobility or lack of action.

1. The patient's paralytical condition left them unable to move without assistance.
2. During the lecture, the professor used a paralytical example to illustrate the concept of inertia.
3. After the accident, he experienced a paralytical episode that lasted several hours.
4. The documentary explored the lives of individuals facing paralytical challenges with resilience.
5. Innovative therapies are being developed to help those suffering from paralytical disorders regain mobility.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paralytical>