

PARALYZATION

Meaning: Paralyzation is the loss of the ability to move or control a part of the body, often resulting from injury or illness.

1. The sudden paralyzation of her limbs left her in a state of shock and confusion.
2. After the accident, doctors were concerned about the potential paralyzation of his lower body.
3. The fear of paralyzation from the injury motivated her to seek immediate medical attention.
4. His research focused on the effects of spinal cord injuries and the risk of paralyzation in patients.
5. The athlete's career was threatened by the risk of paralyzation following multiple concussions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paralyzation>