

PARANOIA

Meaning: Paranoia is an irrational and persistent feeling of distrust or suspicion, often leading to delusions about the motives of others.

1. Her paranoia about the intentions of her colleagues made it difficult for her to trust anyone.
2. The movie depicted a character whose paranoia spiraled out of control, leading to tragic consequences.
3. He often struggled with paranoia, convinced that people were watching and judging his every move.
4. In the quiet of the night, her mind was consumed by paranoia, amplifying every creak in the old house.
5. Despite reassurances from her friends, her paranoia convinced her that she was always the target of gossip.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/paranoia>