

PARCENER

Meaning: Parcener: a co-heir who shares an inheritance, particularly in relation to property or land.

1. The parcener of the estate was eager to discuss the division of the property.
2. As a parcener, she had equal rights to the land inherited from their parents.
3. The dispute between the parceners led to a lengthy legal battle over the family farm.
4. Each parcener was responsible for contributing to the maintenance of the shared property.
5. In the absence of a will, all parceners were entitled to a share of the estate by law.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/parcener>