

PARCHEDNESS

Meaning: PARCHEDNESS: the state of being extremely dry or thirsty, often characterized by cracked soil and withered vegetation.

1. The parchedness of the desert landscape was evident in the cracked earth and wilting plants.
2. After weeks without rain, the parchedness of the fields raised concerns among the farmers.
3. He could feel the parchedness in his throat as he trekked through the arid terrain.
4. The parchedness of the air made it difficult to breathe, leaving a dry taste in her mouth.
5. In the midst of summer, the parchedness of the riverbank revealed how desperately nature needed water.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/parchedness>