

PARCHING

Meaning: PARCHING: causing extreme dryness or thirst, often due to intense heat.

1. The sun beat down relentlessly, parching the earth and leaving it cracked and dry.
2. After a long hike in the heat, I could feel my throat parching for water.
3. The parching winds swept across the desert, stirring up clouds of fine sand.
4. He wiped his brow, feeling the parching heat of the midday sun on his skin.
5. The parching drought had devastated local crops, leaving farmers desperate for rain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/parching>