

PARTING

Meaning: PARTING: the act of separating or moving apart, often used to describe a physical division or an emotional farewell.

1. The parting of the clouds revealed a stunning sunset over the hills.
2. After a long conversation, their parting was filled with bittersweet emotions.
3. She wrote a heartfelt letter to her friend before their parting at the train station.
4. The parting gift he received from his colleagues was both thoughtful and unexpected.
5. As they stood at the edge of the platform, the parting came all too soon.
6. Parting from her childhood home was bittersweet, filled with memories and hopes for the future.
7. The parting of the ways left each friend reflecting on the paths they had chosen.
8. As they stood at the airport gate, the emotion of their parting weighed heavily in the air.
9. The parting gift she received was a beautiful reminder of their shared experiences.
10. With a final wave, they embraced the inevitability of parting, knowing they would meet again.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/parting>