

PARTITION

Meaning: Partition: a division or separation of a whole into distinct parts or sections.

1. The office was redesigned to include a glass partition that allowed for privacy while maintaining an open feel.
2. In mathematics, a partition refers to a way of dividing a set into distinct subsets.
3. The old building was equipped with temporary partitions to create additional meeting spaces during the renovation.
4. She wrote a detailed report explaining how to partition the budget for the upcoming project.
5. The artist used colors to visually partition the canvas into separate sections, each telling its own story.
6. The architect designed a partition to create a more private space in the office.
7. During the renovation, we decided to install a glass partition to divide the living room from the dining area.
8. The computer's hard drive was partitioned to organize files more efficiently.
9. The partition between the two countries has been a source of tension for decades.
10. She used a decorative screen as a partition to separate her workspace from her home.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/partition>