

PARTITIONMENT

Meaning: Partitionment refers to the act or process of dividing a space or area into separate sections or parts.

1. The partitionment of the office space allowed for greater privacy during meetings.
2. With careful partitionment, the artist was able to create a sense of separation between different styles in her work.
3. The software's partitionment feature enabled users to manage their data more efficiently.
4. In the context of the classroom, partitionment can foster a more focused learning environment.
5. The partitionment of land into smaller plots has sparked debate among local residents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/partitionment>