PARTITIVELY

Meaning: Partitively: in a manner that allows for division or selection of parts or components.

1. The chef prepared the dish partitively, allowing guests to choose their own toppings.
2. In the study, participants were asked to respond partitively to each question to reflect their true feelings.
3. The authors examined how the poem could be interpreted partitively, focusing on its various themes.
4. During the debate, she divided her argument partitively, addressing each point with clarity.
5. The data was analyzed partitively to understand the impact of each variable separately.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/partitively