

PARTY

Meaning: A party is a social gathering of people for entertainment, celebration, or enjoyment, often involving food and activities.

1. We are planning a surprise birthday party for her this weekend.
2. The neighborhood block party brought everyone together for food and fun.
3. He always throws the most extravagant parties that people talk about for months.
4. After a long week at work, I love to unwind at a lively party with friends.
5. The theme of the party was '80s nostalgia, complete with retro music and decorations.
6. We are planning a surprise party for her birthday next weekend.
7. He always knows how to throw an unforgettable party with his upbeat playlists.
8. After a long week of work, she was excited to attend a friend's house party.
9. The decorations and theme for the Halloween party were absolutely stunning.
10. We decided to throw a surprise party for her birthday.
11. The party lasted well into the night, filled with laughter and joy.
12. He was invited to a lavish party at a famous celebrity's mansion.
13. After weeks of planning, the office holiday party was a huge success.
14. The children were excited for the costume party at school next week.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/party>