

PARTYISM

Meaning: Partyism is the practice of prioritizing loyalty to a political party over the evaluation of individual candidates or issues, often leading to a disregard for democratic principles.

1. Partyism can undermine the democratic process by prioritizing party loyalty over individual candidate merit.
2. Many voters are increasingly frustrated with partyism, feeling that their voices are drowned out by party agendas.
3. The rise of partyism in politics has led to increased polarization and division among the electorate.
4. Activists argue that partyism stifles innovation and prevents new ideas from emerging in the political landscape.
5. To combat partyism, some political reformers advocate for ranked-choice voting and independent candidates.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/partyism>