

PARVENU

Meaning: Parvenu: a person of newly acquired wealth or social status who often seeks to display it ostentatiously.

1. The parvenu flaunted his wealth at the gala, drawing both admiration and disdain.
2. Despite his parvenu status, he managed to charm the established elites with his charisma.
3. Her rise from humble beginnings to a parvenu in the fashion industry was nothing short of remarkable.
4. Many viewed him as a parvenu, as he lacked the refinement that typically accompanied old money.
5. The parvenu couple decorated their home lavishly, hoping to impress their more affluent neighbors.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/parvenu>