

PASHAW

Meaning: PASHaw (noun): A high-ranking official or governor in certain historical Muslim countries, often wielding significant power and authority.

1. The pashaw ruled the province with an iron fist, demanding absolute loyalty from his subjects.
2. In the grand palace, the pashaw hosted a lavish feast to celebrate his recent victory in battle.
3. Citizens whispered tales of the pashaw's legendary wisdom, hoping to gain his favor and protection.
4. The pashaw's decree brought both prosperity and unrest, as the people debated its implications.
5. With a gesture of his hand, the pashaw silenced the crowd, commanding their attention and respect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pashaw>