

PASSANT

Meaning: Passant (noun): a person who is passing by, especially in a public place; a passerby.

1. The passerby noticed the vibrant street art as he walked by.
2. As the sun set, a lone passerby strolled through the quiet park.
3. A passerby stopped to help the elderly woman cross the busy street.
4. The artist captured the energy of the city through the movements of each passant.
5. In the bustling market, every passant seemed to be in a hurry to reach their destination.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/passant>