

PASSING

Meaning: Passing: the act of transferring or moving something from one person or place to another, often signifying progress or completion in a given context.

1. Passing the baton smoothly is crucial for a successful relay race.
2. She felt a sense of relief after passing her final exam with flying colors.
3. The passing storm left a beautiful rainbow in the sky.
4. He watched the cars passing by from his window, lost in thought.
5. Her passing comment sparked a lively debate among the group.
6. Passing through the old oak grove, I felt a wave of nostalgia wash over me.
7. The passing storm left behind a beautiful rainbow arching across the sky.
8. She was known for her passing remarks that often sparked deep conversations.
9. The athlete's passing skills improved significantly after months of dedicated practice.
10. With each passing year, the town's annual festival grew larger and more vibrant.
11. Passing the ball with precision is crucial in a soccer match.
12. She felt a sense of relief upon passing her final exam.
13. The artist captured the beauty of passing clouds in his painting.
14. He waved goodbye, knowing that passing time would bring change.
15. The train was passing through the station on schedule.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/passing>