

PASTORLING

Meaning: Pastorling: a young or inexperienced pastor, often characterized by a compassionate and nurturing demeanor.

1. The pastorling offered comfort to the grieving family during their time of loss.
2. In the small town, the pastorling was known for his compassionate nature and uplifting sermons.
3. The children looked up to the pastorling, who always took time to listen to their stories.
4. During the festival, the pastorling led a prayer that brought the community together.
5. After the service, the pastorling spent hours chatting with parishioners over coffee.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pastorling>