

PASTURELESS

Meaning: Pastureless: lacking vegetation or grass suitable for grazing livestock.

1. The hillside was barren and pastureless, leaving the sheep with nowhere to graze.
2. After years of drought, the once lush valley became pastureless and desolate.
3. The farmer lamented the loss of his fields, now pastureless and unable to sustain livestock.
4. In the absence of vegetation, the land was a stark reminder of how quickly it could become pastureless.
5. Their journey led them through a pastureless expanse, highlighting the stark beauty of the arid landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pastureless>