

PAT

Meaning: PAT (verb): To touch or stroke lightly with the hand to provide comfort or encouragement.

1. She gave her dog a gentle pat on the head to reassure him.
2. After a long day, he felt a pat on his back from his colleague, encouraging him.
3. The teacher offered a pat of approval when the student presented her project.
4. As they walked through the park, she felt the soft pat of rain beginning to fall.
5. He received a pat from the judge for his impressive performance in the competition.
6. She gave her dog a gentle pat on the head to calm him down.
7. After finishing the project, he received a pat on the back from his manager.
8. The teacher gave a reassuring pat to the nervous student before the exam.
9. As the storm passed, he felt a pat of sunshine break through the clouds.
10. She received a warm pat of approval from her peers for her presentation.
11. She gave the dog a gentle pat on its head.
12. After a long day, he felt a pat of encouragement from his friends.
13. The teacher gave each student a pat on the back for their hard work.
14. With a swift pat, she smoothed down the wrinkles in her dress.
15. He felt a warm pat of pride as he watched his daughter perform.
16. She gave the puppy a gentle pat on the head to calm it down.
17. After finishing his exam, he felt a sense of accomplishment and gave himself a pat on the back.
18. The teacher offered a reassuring pat to the student who was nervous about the presentation.
19. The old man would often sit on the porch, enjoying a quiet evening with his cat resting in his lap, occasionally giving it a pat.
20. During the game, the coach delivered a pat of encouragement to the players as they headed onto the field.
21. She gave her dog a gentle pat on the head to comfort him.

22. After finishing the meal, he gave a satisfied pat to his stomach.
23. The teacher offered a pat on the back to encourage her student.
24. He felt a warm pat of friendship when his old friends visited.
25. With a pat of approval, she acknowledged his hard work and dedication.
26. She gave the dog a gentle pat on the head to calm it down.
27. After a long day, he appreciated a pat on the back for his hard work.
28. The teacher offered a reassuring pat to the student who was feeling nervous.
29. With a quick pat of the pocket, he made sure he had his keys before leaving.
30. The coach gave each player a pat as they walked off the field, proud of their effort.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/pat>*