

PATEFACTION

Meaning: PATEFACTION: the act of revealing or making something clear, especially in relation to personal experiences or legal arguments.

1. The artist's latest work was a patefaction of his inner struggles and triumphs.
2. In the courtroom, the lawyer's arguments aimed at creating a patefaction for his client's innocence.
3. Her heartfelt speech served as a patefaction of the community's long-standing grievances.
4. The novel's final chapter offered a patefaction that left readers in deep contemplation.
5. Through his actions, he sought a patefaction that would resonate with those he had wronged.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/patefaction>